one of America's best small ART towns!

HOMER is one of the most active arts communities in Alaska! Many artists, some of whom enjoy national as well as state-wide reputations, make their homes here producing and marketing art in a wide variety of media. The beauty of Kachemak Bay provides inspiration for the potters, painters, printmakers, photographers, jewelers, weavers, sculptors and glass artists who live and work on the bay's shores.
